

Shruti Dwivedi

General Manager of Blockchain Centre Singapore
Marketing Director of Blockshine Singapore

Shruti has over 17 years of experience in business strategy and operations roles, managing P&Ls, product life cycles, leading teams, and driving growth for businesses in Asia Pacific. In 2016, she moved out of the corporate world to launch her own business venture.

In her current role, Shruti manages Blockchain Centre Singapore, a global non-profit blockchain knowledge & community hub that aims to increase awareness and adoption of blockchain technology. She also leads the growth consulting practice for Blockshine SG, a blockchain advisory and solutions partner for enterprises.
